READING AND PRESENTATION: TERI GAY, AUTHOR OF STRENGTH WITHOUT COMPROMISE

Please join us as author Teri Gay reads from her new book, Strength Without Compromise: Womanly Influence and Political Identity in Turn-of-the-Twentieth Century Rural Upstate New York, on Saturday, November 7 at 11am at the Malta Branch of the Round Lake Library.

Set against the backdrop of the national women's rights movement at the beginning of the twentieth century, this book focuses on the quest for political equality and suffrage as carried out by the women of the rural areas of Washington, Warren, and Saratoga counties. The Political Equality Club of small Easton is highlighted, and the work of its two most ardent leaders, Lucy Allen and Chloe Sisson, showcases the Easton club members' commitment to "votes for women" - not out of a feeling of male oppression but out of a philosophical belief in their natural rights as citizens of a democratic country. Embracing their womanliness for their noble cause, these women organized brilliantly to educate and inspire each other and their community about the wisdom of including women in the electorate at a time when the fight for enfranchisement was heating up across America.

A writer and historian for many years, Teri Gay of Charlton, Saratoga County was the former Malta Historian and author/editor of Malta Memories, published in 2007. Strength Without Compromise is based on thirty years of research on the women's suffrage movement in the southern Adirondacks region and also tells the stories of noted suffragists Elizabeth Wakeman Mitchell of Hudson Falls, Laura Schafer Porter of Fort Edward, Mary Putnam Jacobi and Mary Hillard Loines of Bolton Landing, and Katrina Trask of Saratoga Springs. The contributions of Susan B. Anthony and her sister Mary S. Anthony to the women's rights efforts in the tri-county area are also featured.
